Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

On March 24, 1999 a Preliminary Amendment was mailed to the Patent Office in the above case. Applicants believe they may now be filing a Second Preliminary Amendment in this case to further amend the claims prior to examination. If the Examiner picks up the case for examination and does not see a Second Preliminary Amendment, the Examiner is requested to call the undersigned so that the Second Preliminary Amendment may be faxed in or the Examiner will be advised that no Second Preliminary Amendment will be filed.
